PRESENTERY OF MARYLAND.—The Baltimore Sun has the following account of the or ganization of the new Presbytery of Maryland: "By an order passed by the Synod of Viri nia, at its late meeting in Alexandria, the ministers and churches of the Presbytery of the t hesapeake, within the bounds of the State of Haryland, assembled in the Franklin Street Presbyterian Church, last night, and organized a separate Presbytery, to be called the Presbytery of Maryland. The following churches are embraced within the new Presb; tery : Franklin Square, 261 members; Franklin Street, 528; Laurel, 34; Mount Washington, 17; Poolsville, 29; Rockville and Bethesda, 122; Springfield, 42; total, 1,033. The ministers are J. A. Lefevre, S. B. Jones, J. W. Brown, P. Hartison, B. L. McMurran, C. N. Campbell, Jno. Leyburn, W. U. Murkland, J. G. Harmer, H. L. Singleton, J. H. Baird, Jam's Nicola P. P. Flournoy and Charles Beach. The clidets present were G. F. Anderson, I. D. Jones, Wm. Snowden, J. Harmanns Fisher and Trusten Polk. Previous to the business speed for this I cure. Ticket holders are requested to ner, the senior member of the Presbytery, who was afterwards elected moderator. R v. R L McMurran was elected mated clerk, G. F. Anderson temporary clerk, and A. CANAL ITEMS .- John Cabill was arrested in Georgetown yesterday by Detective Highn, of Kaltimore, and will be taken to Hagerstown to-day for trial on the charge of being one of] the party who burued a steamboar on the capal during the strike last summer. Cabili was arristed with others shortly after the recurrence, but was discharged by the justice of the peace who heard the case. The grand jury of Washington county brought in a presentment against thin a few days ago, and his trial will come off rext week with the others under indistment. The Cumberland Alleganian says:

"The body of Capt. Charles Little, who was draward off the capal boat Dr. J. P. Broderick while attempting to save his mules during the recent flood, was discovered by Mr. Deloney, s ven miles below the seeme of the accident. The body was lying in a lot of drift brush, perfeetly denuded of elething, and had two wounds upon it, the cause of which are only enjoyent able. The body was taken to Sharpsbarz, and from theree conveyed to his late residence in low prices by Hancock.

STOVE CASE -- Mention was made in yesterday's Gazette of the release of Daniel Washington, colored, who had been committed for stealling a store from Mr. Charles Brill, and the judement of the magistrates giving him the pos session of the stove. It seems that the stove had been left in Justice Padgett's office, in the cus tody of Constable Harper, and when that officer returned from the trief at Justice Lovejoy's office, he found that somebody had carried it off. He alleges that it was taken by Mr. Charles Drill, je, and has sworn out a warrant against him, charging him with breaking and entering the office and stealing the stays, which were at vill be heard this evultar. Meantime Mr. Brill, sr., has attached the stove for money due on it, and this most interestingly mixed up case is affording much amusement to the frequentess of the magistrates offices, and the lawyers. This evening the criminal warrancagainst young Mr. Brill was abandoned, and the attrehment ease carried to the Corporation Court.

CONCERT LAST NIGHT -Saropta Hall, last right, was well filled with a fashionable and appreciative audience to hear the grand concert or the benefit of Christ and St. Paul's Churches. The arrangements for the scating of the audience and their comfort were perfect, and the young gentlomen ushers received much praise for the excellent manner in which they discharged their duties. The music was under the direction of Prof. R. E. Heyman and Mr. J. M. Buchanan, president of the Ocphous Ostette Cub, and was of a high order of merit. the singles of Misses Dienelt, Marbury and Smart, and Messes. Beebanan, Boswell, Daniel and Stabler was raptuously applauded and cu cored, as was also the instrumental performance of Mrs. Dixon, Miss Marye and Prof. Heyman. The due for piane and flate by Profs. Heyman and Schutter was particularly admired, both gentlemen being neknowledged masters of the isstruments upon which they performed.

VIRGINIA MIDIAND ROAD, -A landslide ec curred at Amiret's Cut, a short distance north of Lyuchburg, on the Miditad Road, yesterday incoming, necessitating about ten hours work, and the transfer of passengers on the train coming unith which, in consequence, did not arrive here until two hours behind time. Yesterday evening spother slide took place at the same point, and, in consequence thereof, the night train had to be abandoned. The track was, however, cleared during the night, and trains are new running regularly.

It is stated, on very reliable authority, that the Danville division will be open through its entire length by Tuesday next, provided no unforseen accident cerura.

POTOMAC FRUIT GROWERS .- The monthly inceting of the Potemae Fruit Growers' Asso cation was held in Washington on Tuesday, Chaikley Gilliegham (president) in the chair. There was a discussion upon the important question of the cause and cure of the grape dis ease, so prevalent throughout the country. This debate grew out of the circular letter of inquiry sent out by Agricultural Commissioner Le
